PSYCHIATRIC REPORT

on Savitry Devi MUKERGI, Aged 43 years.

The above named woman was examined by me at WERL Prison. She was arrested on 19th Feb.49 and I am informed she is on remand awaiting trial.

Complaint: She makes no subjective complaint.

History:

She states that she had an English mother and a Greek father. She spent her childhood in Greece and she records that at the early age of 10, her mind turned towards politics. She was given a good academic education and graduated Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy at LYON University. Her politics took a definite shape, namely Nationalism and she worked for her ideas with considerable fervour. She met a Brahim who was of like politics and married this man because of this and also to obtain a British passport. She states that her husband organized a National Socialist newspaper in India which was banned by the authorities in 1937. Later, from her account, he organized a similar paper in Japan. She came to BAOR in September 1948 and was arrested by the authorities on 19th Feb.49 for distributing leaflets on National Socialism.

Examination:

She is a woman of considerable learning and of high intelligence. She is not readily swayed by logical argument but counters with ideas which are debatable and which she binds up in strong and powerful emotional contents. From the information available to me, and my examination I could find no psychiatric disability.

Diagnosis: No Psychiatric Disability.

Opinion:

Though she is undoubtedly unusual in some of her attitudes, I do not consider she comes within the realms of disease. In my opinion she is aware of the nature and quality of her acts and is fit for trial.

Recommendation:

No psychiatric recommendation.

BERLIN.

Sir,

Permit me to appeal to you, on behalf of my wife, Savitri Mukhrjee, who has been recently sentenced to 3 years' imprisonment by Military Tribunal of Dusseldorf on the charge of distributing pro-Nazi pamphlets.

I have no intention to question the legality of the punishment. I should only appeal to you to commute the sentence as a special case.

Savitri Mukhrjee (nee Macimiane Portaz), has received high academic degrees of D.Litt and D.Sc. of Lyons University. She has been inspired by Nordic, pre-Christian ideals of ancient Europe since her early youth. After completing her education, she went to Greece and attempted to introduce ancient Hellenic ideals in modern Athens. She failed to impress on the Greeks the value of her viewpoint. Then she came to India, and got herself converted to Hinduism, which appealed to her intellect and emotion. She stayed here till 1945, October. Throughout her sojourn here, she never joined any political party. She was known personally to Mr. Gandhi and the Poet Tagore who appreciated her intellectual approach to Indian ideals.

During the war years in India, she never participated in any political - not to speak of anti-allied-activity. The British officer in charge of security in Calcutta - Mr. K. Tolson - could testify to her political indifference.

She began to take a deep interest in an ancient Egyptian sun-cult, propounded by the famous Pharaoh, Akhutan and his consort, Ner-fer-titi. She wrote three books on this rational, non-sacerdotal religion. The Theosophical Society of England published her book, entitled "A Son of God" in 1947. Savitri addressed a few interested groups of intellectuals in London, Paris, Stockholm, Oslo, on Akhutan's philosophy.

She had little money (excepting some jewellery) to finance any association. She was disappointed at the lack of response from European intelligentsia to her plan for reviving the sun-cult of the ancient Pharaoh. Though a few sympathetic persons like Capt. Michael Scott, of Coldstream Guards, Lord Wharton and others encouraged her, still she could not get much support from well-to-do philanthropists.

During her trip to Stockholm in 1948, she came in touch with the old Swedish explorer, Sven Hedin (well-known friend and collaborator of Hitler). Hedin told her about Hitler's love for Nordic ideals; and Hitler's friendly attitude towards Akhutan and Nefertiti's philosophy. Moreover, Sven Hedin told her how Nazi leaders took exceptional measures against cruelty to animals. Savitri has cherished vigorous solicitude for the welfare of dumb creatures. While in Calcutta, she fed about 100 dogs and cats. Thus, under the hypnotic influence of Hedin, she began to take a lively interest in Nazi view of life. She met one person named Elwyn Wright (who was Secretary of Anglo-German Society in London), who was very much pro-Nazi. He advised her to go to Germany to work among sympathetic people. Savitri went to Germany in September last year. She was introduced to one German, named Herr May Aloe, of 10 Blucherstrasse, Alfeld am Leine, Niedersachsen. She began to take a deep interest in an ancient Egyptian sun-cult, propounded by the famous Pharaoh, Akhuaton and his consort, Ner-fer-titi. She wrote three books on this rational, non-sacerdotal religion. The Theosophical Society of England published her book, entitled "A Son of God" in 1947. Savitri addressed a few interested groups of intellectuals in London, Paris, Stockholm, Oslo, on Akhuaton's philosophy.

She had little money (excepting some jewellery) to finance any association. She was disappointed at the lack of response from European intelligentsia to her plan for reviving the sun-cult of the ancient Pharaoh. Though a few sympathetic persons like Capt. Michael Scott, of Coldstream Guards, Lord Wherton and others encouraged her, still she could not get much support from well-to-do philanthropists.

and aged her on to do propoganda work. And now she has suffered for her indiscretion.

I have tired your patience by giving in detail the social and intellectual background of my wife. I appeal to you to commute the heavy sentence imposed on her. Her widowed mother (English woman, nee Julia Nash) is aged 83. She lives alone at 107, Rue Bossuet, Lyon, France. Savitri is her only issue. Moreover Savitri is physically very delicate; it is a hard sentence, and her health will break down. May I request you to review the judgment, and to deal with her tenderly. She may be sent away from West Germany and she should not be given any claim to martyrdom. As she is extremely sentimental, she will meekly suffer all penalties; even at the cost of her health.

As regards my credentials, I should beseech you to refer to the Government of India, Home Department, New Delhi.

I leave it to your mature judgment to consider her case humanly.

I have the honour to remain, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

(sgd. Asit Krishna Mukhrjee.

Ich möchte nicht die Rechtmäßigkeit der Strafe in Frage stellen, sondern möchte nur um Abänderung der Strafe bitten, da ein besonderer Fall vorliegt.

M. hat den Doktortitel der Universität Lyon. Fühlte sich seit früher Jugend zu nordischen und vor-christlichen Idealen hingezogen, kam dann nach Indien, wo sie bis Oktober 1945 blieb. Trat nie einer politischen Partei bei, war persönlich mit Gandhi bekannt.

Während des Krieges nicht politisch betätigt.

~~Hedin~~ Während eines Aufenthaltes in Stockholm 1948 lernte sie Sven Hedin kennen, der ihr von Hitler und seinen nordischen Idealen erzählte. Von da an interessierte sie sich sehr für den National-Sozialismus und seine Weltanschauung. Kam nach Deutschland im September vorigen Jahres, war tief beeindruckt von dem Elend, daß sie sah. Verkauft all ihren Schmuck, um den Armen zu helfen. Sie wurde von einigen Abenteurern in Westdeutschland ausgenutzt, die sie anregten, sich politisch zu betätigen.

Ihre Mutter (Witwe) ist 83 Jahre alt, sie das einzige Kind. Sehr zarte Gesundheit, die wahrscheinlich durch die Haft schwer geschädigt wird.

I was born in Lyon (France) on the 30th Sept. 1905. My father's name was Maximin Raynard Portes and my mother, Julia Portes née Nash, is English.

I was the only child of my parents, who were already, respectively, 45 and 40 years old at my birth.

I first went to school at the "Institution des Jeunes Filles" 36 rue Suckert Lyon, when I was 6 (16 Oct. 1911) and remained there until 1917. On the 7th July 1917, I passed the "Certificat d'études primaires".

I was then for a year at another school 92 Rue Maréchal; then at the Modern College, Place Guichard and at the "Lycée des Jeunes Filles". I obtained my Brevet élémentaire (July 1921), Brevet Supérieur (July 1923) and Baccalauréat (with "mention très bien").

After a stay of 3 months in Greece in 1923 (Aug to Decemb).

I came back to France and studied at the Lyons University, spending every year my holidays in Greece. I took my "Licence ès Lettres" (1927) license in Sciences (1930) and Doctoral in Letters, with 2 theses, the first "La Simplicité Mathématique" and the other; "Essai critique sur Théophile Kairis" (a Greek thinker of the 19th century). I was in Athens 2 years also in Egypt and Syria between 1927 and 1929. And wrote one of my theses there. My father died in Feb. 1932. And I, desiring to see the one country in the world in which a Heathen tradition, akin to that of pre-Christian Europe, has survived throughout centuries, went to India. I did not intend to stay there more than a year or two. But circumstances were such that I stayed till 1946, with the exception of a journey to Baghdad in 1937. I taught here in 2 Colleges (a boys' College in Matura and a girls' College in Punjab (Jullundur) and lectured in favour of the Heathen tradition, using the platform of the "Hindu Mission" and "All India Hindu Mahasabha". I tried to come to Europe in 1939 and failed but could not. I married Asit Krishna Mukherji, a Brahmin of Bengal, by civil marriage on 29 Sept 1939, and by religious Hindu marriage on 9 June 1940. I came to Europe in 1946, travelled in France, England, Ireland, Norway, Sweden and Germany, where I first came in June 1948. I am the author of several books on philosophical

1. As you are aware, the sentence imposed on the above named woman was to be suspended if and when a Deportation Order was made.

2. The Central Secretariat have intimated, however, that expulsion may suit this case better owing to the difficulties which might be encountered in effecting her deportation to India.

3. It is understood that Mrs. MUKHERJI has already expressed her intention and desire to proceed to France if and when an Expulsion Order is made against her. The necessary exit permit and a French Visa can be secured provided she completes the attached application forms.

4. It is proposed that the Exit Permit and the Visa will be valid only for the 15th August 1949 to 18th August 1949 inclusive during which time she must comply with the Expulsion Order and proceed to France.

5. It is anticipated that British Civil Police will convey her to the border of the French Zone by road on 15th August 1949. Will you, therefore, please cause Mrs. MUKHERJI to complete the attached application forms as soon as possible and return same to this office together with her passport which is attached hereto to assist in the completion of the forms.
